

Foundation Stage News – Week 22nd January 2018

Reading

We will not be listening to children read this week as we have crucial assessments that need to be carried out.

Question of the week

How can we contact the emergency services?

Little cubs- police role play
Tigers- fire station role play
Lions- ambulance role play

We will be learning how to contact emergency services and role play doing so.

Literacy

F2- Pop will be calling the police

F1 are invited to bring in objects from home beginning with Rr.

Please send your child with suitable clothing for forest school. Girls may be more comfortable in leggings, trousers or tights. Your child needs thick socks- you can send them in thermals if you like. Mrs Sharp wears 4 layers on Mondays! You might want to layer your child up on these days- or send extra layers to put on.

Homework for this half term is now on the website.

Please don't forget that you can contact us via email:

MILK

Lots of children are asking for milk at snack time but they aren't on the list. Please register your child online if they would like milk. www.coolmilk.com
Milk is free for children until they are 5. You can pay via the website if your child is already 5 years old.

Forest Schools

Using the axe to split logs.
Hunting for mini beasts.
Tigers this week.

Maths

Exploring positional language using the book, "What the ladybird heard" by Julia Donaldson

Key Words Fun activities

Please ensure your child brings their key words to school every day so that we can practise them and add more to their collection.
There are 45 key words that each child must be able to read and write before they leave the foundation stage.

Dates for your diary

Monday, 12th Feb.

Forest school event 3:30-4:30pm.
Chocolate for the ones you love!
