

Was the Great war really that great?

Bingo Homework

Here are your homework activities for our World War 1 topic. Your work should be beautifully presented and in your own words, you cannot just copy and paste from the internet. Please bring in by the last Tuesday of term (18th December).

Create a tank. It can be made out of anything you like: e.g. lego, meccano, shoe box, cereal box, wood

Doodle Maths

Complete each weeks Doodle Maths set Homework task to help build on learning in the class. Help your class earn some Doodle Stars—can your class be top of the leader board?

Write a letter to your family as if you were a soldier on the front line. Could this be in the form of a poem?

Create a piece of artwork to commemorate Remembrance Sunday.

Visit the following website:
<https://www.bbc.com/bitesize/topics/zqhyb9q>
Choose any 3 learner guides and summarise the information. Present this to the class.

Read a few poems by some of the following poets (or you could find your own).

Edmund Blunden
Rupert Brooke
Robert Graves
Ivor Gurney
David Jones
John McRae
Wilfred Owen
Isaac Rosen
Siegfried Sassoon
Rudyard Kipling

What do these poems mean?
Can you recite it to the class, and then talk about it?