

Foundation Stage Newsletter Week 25th February

We have been reflecting upon our experiences and learning throughout our “999 What’s the emergency?” theme. We have been impressed with how much the children have been able to recall and their passion about this theme.

We are all looking forward to our next theme of, “Who’s afraid of the big bad wolf?”

If you have a copy of “The Three Little Pigs” please send it in for us to share and enjoy.

Look out for the new homework challenges on the school website.

Don’t forget forest school sessions will recommence this week. Foxes will take part in forest school on Monday, 25th February. Badgers will experience Forest School the following week. Don’t forget to send your child with extra layers and hats, scarves and gloves.
